

Moots Vibe Marketing Campaign: "The Forever Frame"

1. Campaign Concept: "Arkansas Dust & Post-Ride Lonestar"

The Vibe:

This campaign shifts the focus away from technical specifications—such as stiffness-to-weight ratios or aerodynamic drag—and instead sells the feeling of the ride. It is about the endurance of titanium, the grit of the trail, and the reward at the end. The aesthetic is lo-fi, grainy film, and authentic. It's a dusty Moots Routt leaning against a weathered fence at a trailhead, not a studio-lit product shot.

The Message:

"No carbon expiration dates. Just the sound of the tires on the flint hills and the promise of a cold one at the finish. Built in Colorado, proven in the Ozarks."

2. Social Media Captions (Moots Voice)

The tone is short, masculine, understated, and focused on the timeless endurance of titanium.

Post 1: The Bentonville Trailhead

(Visual: A dusty Moots Routt 45 leaning against a wooden fence post at the Coler Mountain Bike Preserve, early morning mist.)

"No carbon expiration dates. Just the sound of tires on flint and the promise of a cold one at the finish. Built in Colorado, proven in the Ozarks. #Moots #Titanium #Gravel"

Post 2: The Austin Coffee Stop

(Visual: A Vamoots RSL parked outside Flat Track Coffee in East Austin, a cortado resting on the top tube.)

"Some things are built to last. Your frame should be one of them. Hand-welded in Steamboat, right at home in ATX. #Moots #ForeverBike #AustinCycling"

Post 3: The Oklahoma City Golden Hour

(Visual: A rider on a Routt RSL silhouetted against the sunset near Lake Hefner, dust kicking up from the rear tire.)

"Miles fade. Titanium doesn't. Outlasting the light in OKC. #Moots #GravelGrinder #Titanium"

Post 4: The Post-Ride Reward

(Visual: Close-up of a dusty Moots head badge, with a blurred pint of craft beer from Stonecloud Brewing in the background.)

"Earned the dust. Earned the pour. The ride doesn't end at the trailhead. #Moots #PostRide #CraftBeer"

3. "Pop-up Espresso & Dirt" Event Guide

The Strategy:

Partner with the coolest independent coffee roasters and craft breweries located near major gravel and cycling trails in Texas, Oklahoma, and Arkansas. The Moots rep brings a demo fleet to these locations for a morning "Espresso & Dirt" ride, followed by an afternoon "Pints & Pedals" session.

Ideal Conditions:

Target weekends with clear skies and temperatures around 72°F (typically mid-to-late October or early April in this region).

Target Locations & Partners

Bentonville, Arkansas (The Ozarks Vibe)

The epicenter of modern trail riding, blending deep woods with high-end coffee culture.

Partner Type	Name	Location	The Vibe
Coffee	Airship Coffee at Coler	1300 Applegate Trail, Bentonville, AR	An open-air, concrete-arch cafe located inside the Coler Mountain Bike Preserve. No front door, no Wi-Fi, just swings, coffee, and trail access ¹ . The ultimate "if you know, you know" spot.

Brewery	Bike Rack Brewing Co.	801 SE 8th St, Bentonville, AR	Bentonville's go-to brewery for trail-ready craft beer, deeply embedded in the local cycling community ² .
----------------	------------------------------	-----------------------------------	---

Austin, Texas (The East Side Vibe)

Gritty, artistic, and deeply rooted in independent cycling culture.

Partner Type	Name	Location	The Vibe
Coffee	Flat Track Coffee	1619 E Cesar Chavez St, Austin, TX	A coffee roaster that shares space with Cycleast (a bike repair shop). It is the absolute core of Austin's "coffee meets chain grease" culture ³ .
Alternative Coffee	The Meteor	2110 S Congress Ave, Austin, TX	A mash-up of an all-day cafe, natural wine shop, and boutique bike shop. High-end aesthetic perfect for showcasing titanium ⁴ .
Brewery/Hangout	Cosmic Coffee + Beer Garden	121 Pickle Rd, Austin, TX	A massive outdoor garden with food trucks, waterfalls, and a mix of coffee and craft beer. Perfect for a large post-ride gathering ⁵ .

Oklahoma City, Oklahoma (The Urban Grit Vibe)

Industrial revival meeting expansive prairie winds.

Partner Type	Name	Location	The Vibe
Coffee	Elemental Coffee Roasters	815 N Hudson Ave, Oklahoma City, OK	A staple of the Midtown OKC scene, known for excellent roasts and a strong connection to the local creative and cycling communities ⁶ .
Alternative Coffee	Prelude Coffee Roasters	3 NE 8th St, Oklahoma City, OK	Located inside the 8th Street Market, offering a refined, specialty coffee experience ⁷ .
Brewery	Stonecloud Brewing Company	1012 NW 1st St, Oklahoma City, OK	Housed in a historic, renovated laundry building, offering a fantastic taproom experience just a short ride from downtown trails ⁸ .

4. Execution Checklist for the Sales Rep

- Advance Scouting: Contact the owners of Airship (Bentonville), Flat Track (Austin), and Elemental (OKC) 4-6 weeks in advance to propose the "Pop-up Espresso & Dirt" morning.
- Demo Fleet Prep: Ensure the demo van is stocked with Routt 45s and Vamoots RSLs in a full size run.
- Local Amplification: Have the partner coffee shops tease the event on their Instagram stories using the lo-fi aesthetic.
- The Event: Set up the Moots tent subtly. No massive banners. Just the bikes, good espresso, and conversations about titanium welds and tire clearance.
- The Handoff: Direct interested riders to the local premium Moots dealer (e.g., Mellow Johnny's in Austin, Phat Tire in Bentonville) to finalize their custom builds.

References

- [1] It Doesn't Get Any Cooler Than Airship Coffee at Coler - Only In Arkansas
- [2] Bike Rack Brewing Co. - Brewery in Bentonville, AR
- [3] Flat Track Coffee Roasters - Austin, Texas
- [4] The Meteor - Austin, TX
- [5] Cosmic Coffee + Beer Garden - Austin, TX
- [6] Elemental Coffee Roasters - Oklahoma City, OK
- [7] Prelude Coffee Roasters - Oklahoma City, OK
- [8] Stonecloud Brewing Company - Oklahoma City, OK